DEAR JOURNAL: -After a rain and snow storm Boreas has settled to biz, and the glass marks eight degrees above zero. This city is the county sent of Dade county and has a population of 1,200. The ist compells me to say that he quit the bus real estate agent. Again it is a vare occorrence that a population of 1,200 should build and support six churches, yet such is the case here. The Presbyterian, the Comberlin Presbyterian, the Babtist, the Methedist, each have a commodious house of worship, regular services and each a stated Pastor. Another pleasant feature is that of papils now in attendance is about one fine College building here with capacity to accommodate three hundred students. A general College Course of instruction is given. The College is under the control of the Presbyterians, but the instruction is cientific and secular points are omitted.

The colored population here have suchools parate from the whites, which is with equal efficiency.

The county supports two papers, The Date County Artocate (Dem.) and the Greenfield Vidette (Rep.). Two Independent ent Banks are sustained and are said to be doing well.

The county configuous is a mixture rolling prairie and thickly set, small sized timber. Coal is abundant and sells by the load at 15 cents per bushel. Lead and zink abound and are successfully mined. Improved land commands from $15 to 40 per acre, while unimproved may be had from $5 to $10 per acre. The shipments consist of fruit, wool, stock, wheat, corn and potatoes.

The county is well watered by numeron springs and small streams and Sac River, of which these streams are all affluents. Fish of various kinds abound, such as ent, channel cat, white and black bars, suckers, sunfish and red horse are the principal

The autlook for the conviction of General Swaim is not so encouraging as it ought to be. I should think that an ordinary court martial would hardly need any tronger proof of guilt than the moverable defense from the outset. When Swalm was first brought tace to face with these charges, he declined the interference of a military commission to investigate them and when that commission was ordered by the Secretary of War and found a basis for the charges, he resisted the court mar-tial that the President was compelled to order to try him, and here he has interpos ed every possible obstacte in the shape demorrers, rebuttals, surrebuttals, what not, until his counsel have succeeded in getting the court into confusion, warse confounded.
